

Assistant/Associate Professor in Educational Research

The Division of Educational Psychology, Research and Evaluation, University of Missouri-St. Louis, invites candidates for an Assistant/Associate tenure-track position in Educational Research beginning August 15, 2010. Ph.D. preferred, or ABD with completion within 4 months of hire.

Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and/or graduate courses in research methods and program evaluation; scholarship and extramural grant acquisition; consulting with faculty and students; supervising doctoral students; serving the university community. Strong quantitative research skills, training in qualitative methods, and ability to teach research design is expected. Interest in character and/or citizenship education will complement the Division's strengths. Application should include summarizing cover letter, curriculum vitae, official transcripts, three letters of recommendation, selected reprints, evidence of university teaching effectiveness.

The University of Missouri-St. Louis is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer committed to excellence through diversity.

Submit to Dr. Matthew Keefer, Chair, Division of Educational Psychology, Research and Evaluation, 469 Marillac Hall, University of Missouri-St. Louis, One University Boulevard, St. Louis, Missouri 63121-4499. Screening begins March 1st, 2010 and continues until position is filled.

