ISPP Annual Meeting
July 4-7, 2007
Portland, Oregon, USA

"Political Psychology: Then, Now, and Hereafter"

CONFERENCE DETAILS BY DAY AND TIME
(as of June 11, 2007)

NOTE: Abstracts of papers are available at: http://convention2.allacademic.com/one/ispp/ispp07

Indicates presenters of co-authored papers; non-presenting co-authors also listed.

Panel codes refer to the day (e.g., W = Wednesday), time slot (e.g., 1 = 9:00, 2 = 11:00, 3 = 2:00, 4 = 4:00), and session (1 and up for each time slot). For example, T3.4 means Thursday, 2:00-3:45 (3rd time slot), session #4.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 8:30 am-

Registration Begins

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 9:00-10:45 am

W1.1 Slow Genocide: The Effects of Chronic Violence
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Unintended consequences? Negative effects of positive reform in violent societies
Claire Metelits, Northwestern University

False civility and passive peace: Exploring the relationship between family and intra-communal violence
Faith Lutze, Washington State University

Chronic violence in refugee camps
Joe Huseby, Washington State University

Surviving war: The impact of committing, experience, and living with violence
Martha Cottam, Washington State University

Chair: Max Abrahms, UCLA
Discussant: Johanna Vollhardt, University of Massachusetts

W1.2 All Humanity is My Ingroup (sponsored by the Caucus of Concerned Scholars)
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Identification with All Humanity and selective exposure to humanitarian concerns
*Sam McFarland, Western Kentucky University
Derek Brown, Western Kentucky University

Morality, human rights, and identification with All Humanity
Pearl Oliner, Humboldt State University

Who believes that identification with All Humanity is ethical?
*Derek Brown, Western Kentucky University
Sam McFarland, Western Kentucky University

At one with All Humanity: Testing Monroe's explanation for altruism
*Kristen Monroe, University of California, Irvine
Maria Luisa Martinez, University of California, Irvine
Amy Alexander, University of California, Irvine

Chair: Sam McFarland, Western Kentucky University

W1.3 Psychological Motivations for Political Participation
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Social isolation and voting behavior: How political participation is effected by individual perceptions of loneliness
David Pearl, Washington State University
Robert Anderson, Washington State University

Political participation in cross-national context
Sandra Marquart-Pyatt, Utah State University

Who will vote? Connecting choice, information, and turnout
Yanna Krupnikov, University of Michigan

The role of emotions in the link between efficacy and political participation
*Nicholas Valentino, University of Michigan
Eric Groenendyk, University of Michigan
Krysha Gregorowicz, University of Michigan

Chair: Martin Rosema, University of Twente
Discussants: David Redlawsk, University of Iowa & Michael Morrell, University of Connecticut

W1.4 Political Figures, Speeches, and Audience Reactions
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Conveying disaster: Cognition and emotion of newscasters and political leaders during major terrorist attacks
Rajiv Jhangiani, University of British Columbia

Factors affecting the perception of threat in own side versus enemy speeches
David G. Winter, University of Michigan

Spinning death and defeat: The social science behind presidential rhetoric
David Smith, University of Kansas

Contributions of psychology to promoting support for far-sighted policy initiatives
William Ascher, Claremont McKenna College

Chair: Maritza Montero, Universidad Central de Venezuela
Discussant: Monica C. Schneider, University of Minnesota

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 11:00-12:45 am

W2.1 Violence
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Violence and centrality of work: To reconsider the political and action theory starting from psychodynamics of work
*Jean François Rebeyrat, University d'Angers
Gernet Isabelle, Conservatoire National des Arts et Métiers (CNAM)

Urban rioting in France, 2005-2006: Arraying data and theories
William R. Meyers, University of Cincinnati

Using the script concept to understand Al Qaeda directed and inspired terrorism attacks in Europe: Case studies from the UK
Helen Purkitt, U.S. Naval Academy

Understanding the roots of evil: Effects on attributions of political and societal violence
*Johanna Vollhardt, University of Massachusetts
Judith Ehrke, University of Cologne

Chair: Jeremy Ginges, New School for Social Research
Discussant: Jeremy Ginges, New School for Social Research

W2.2 National Identity, Nationalism, and Citizenship
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: B. Citizenship and Democratic Values

Dilemmas of liberal anti-nationalism: The case of English attitudes towards UK constitutional change
Susan Condor, Lancaster University

Serving the country: Military service and national representation amongst soldiers and civilians in England
Stephen Gibson, York St John University

They think they're the greatest: National football support and the problematising of identity in Scotland and England
Jackie Abell, Lancaster University

Now we must be loyal to ourselves: Loyal British identity in Northern Ireland pre- and post-Good Friday Agreement
*Clifford Stevenson, Queen's University Belfast
Susan Condor, Lancaster University
Jackie Abell, Lancaster University

Chair: Evanthia Lyons, University of Surrey
Discussant: Evanthia Lyons, University of Surrey

W2.3 Group Identity, Well-Being, and Pro-Social Behavior: Then, Now, and Hereafter
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Intra-group regulation of violence: Bystanders and the (de)escalation of violence
*Mark Levine, Lancaster University
Rachel Best, Lancaster University
Paul Taylor, Liverpool University

National identification, experience of violence and mental health
*Orla Muldoon, Queens University Belfast
Katharina Schmid, University of Oxford

Group identity in older adulthood
Clare Cassidy, University of St. Andrews

Social identification, collective self-realization and well-being
*Alex Haslam, University of Exeter
Blerina Kellezi, University of St Andrews

Chair: Clare Cassidy, University of St. Andrew's Discussant: Kristen Monroe, University of California, Irvine

W2.4 The Psychological Foundations of Voting Behavior
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Psychosocial correlates as predictors of voting behaviour in Nigeria
*Olukunle O. Oluwatula, Redeemer's University
Odunayo T. Arogundade, Redeemer's University

Emotional voting in party-centered politics
Martin Rosema, University of Twente

Political posters and democratic election campaigns: An experimental approach to poster effects on individual voters' attitudes and behavior in France
Delia Dumitrescu, Ohio State University

Italian political elections 2006: Voting behavior and hierarchical representation of motives
*Silvia Mari, University of Padova
Luca Andrighetto, University of Padova
Trifiletti Elena, University of Padova
Dora Capozza, University of Padova

Chair: Nadia Khatib, University of Arizona
Discussant: Nicholas Valentino, University of Michigan

W2.5 Candidate Strategies and Voting Behavior in Political Campaigns
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political communication and socialization

Performance at the polls: Public opinion as an indicator of rhetorical performance
Kathleen Searles, Washinton State University

Gender bending: The effects of candidate web strategy
Monica C. Schneider, University of Minnesota

Bias of voting behaviour study in Indonesia: Exploring the political meaning of society by phenomenological perspective
Rahkman Ardi, Airlangga University

Chair: Joop van Holsteyn, Leiden University
Discussants: Alina Dobreva, University of Leeds & Hiro Saito, University of Michigan

W2.6 Emotion and Neuropolitics
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Emotional intelligence as a predictor of presidential success
Eric Stokan, Wayne State University

"Happy Warriors revisited": Hedonic and agonic display repertoires of presidential candidates on the evening news
*Erik P. Bucy, Indiana University

Maria E. Grabe, Indiana University

Identification and mastery of emotions has key process for the politics of the present and future time: An analysis in terms of social psychotherapy
*Mauro Galluccio, European Commission
Francesco Aquilar, Centre of Cognitive Psychology and Psychotherapy, Naples, Italy

Chair: Darren Schreiber, University of California, San Diego
Discussant: Darren Schreiber, University of California, San Diego

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 2:00-3:45 pm

W3.1 Sources of Violence in the Middle East
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Notes on the MidEast
Ronald Turco, Oregon Health and Science University

Sacred values and violent political conflict
Jeremy Ginges, New School for Social Research

Suicide terrorism and the meaningful self
Rebecca Morgan, Defence Science and Technology Laboratory, UK

Rediscovering historical memory: German foreign military intervention decision-making and the second Lebanon war
Jeffrey Martinson, Meredith College

Chair: Claire Metelits, Northwestern University
Discussant: Jim Breckenridge, PGSP-Stanford Consortium

W3.2 Muslims in the West: Perspectives from Political Psychology
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: B. Citizenship and Democratic Values

Citizenship and political identity: A comparative analysis of muslims in Canada and the UK
Paul Nesbitt-Larking, Huron University College

Parallel societies: Citizenship and homesteading practices among muslims in Sweden and Denmark
Catarina Kinnvall, Lund University

Between tradition and modernity: Impact of religion and religious institutions on the acculturation to muslim immigrant women in the west
Saba Ozyurt, University of California, Irvine

Passion, reason, and Islam: How anger and fear determine perceptions of out-group members
Tereza Capelos, Leiden University

Chair: Stephen Gibson, York St John University
Discussant: Susan Condor, Lancaster University

W3.3 Social Identity and Collective Behavior: Some Lessons from Indian Research
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Making sense of the Mela: A social psychological perspective upon collective life at a religious fair
*Janak Pandey, University of Allahabad
*Nick Hopkins, University of Dundee
*Purnima Singh, IIT Dehli

Experiencing the collective Mela Clare Cassidy, University of St Andews

Social relations and giving to others in the Mela
Mark Levine, Lancaster University

Caste division and imagined communities: Lessons from the Mela
Steve Reicher, University of St Andrews

Chair: Purnima Singh, IIT Dehli
Discussant: Janak Pandey, University of Allahbad

W3.4 Organizational Planning and Behavior
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

The bureaucracy made me do it: Understanding agentic shift in bureaucrats
Paul Hathaway, Idaho State University

Executive motivation and policy leadership: Political action in police administration
Manny Teodoro, Colgate University

Person-oriented thinking as a form of organizational authoritarianism
Koichi Eugene Okamoto, Toyo Eiwa University

The technical support to effects based operations study
Fiona Butcher, Defence Science and Technology Lab, UK

Chair: Martha Cottam, Washington State University
Discussant: William R. Meyers, University of Cincinnati

W3.5 Political Orientations in Adolescents
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Becoming more than Japanese? Four stages of national identity development in the age of cosmopolitanization
Hiro Saito, University of Michigan

Civic knowledge of high-school students in Israel: Personal and contextual determinants
Orit Ichilov, Tel-Aviv University

Political socialization, media perception and information processing (case of Bulgaria)
Alina Dobreva, University of Leeds

Legitimization and empathy towards the narrative of the "other" and acculturation patterns: The case of Israeli and Palestinian youth
Ariel Ayalon, Ben Gurion University of the Negev

Chair: Terri Susan Fine University of Central Florida
Discussants: Amy Carter, Westminster College & William Ascher, Claremont McKenna College

W3.6 Evolution of the Political Brain
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Our evolved emotional brain at community, national & species-wide levels
Mary E. Clark, George Mason University

The moral identity: Can work on religious experience help construct a philosophical framework for understanding the neuroscientific foundation for altruism?
Adam Martin, University of California, Irvine

Race and norm violation: A functional brain imaging study
Darren Schreiber, University of California, San Diego

Chair: Corrie Hunt, University of Minnesota
Discussant: Erik P. Bucy, Indiana University

W3.7 Political Psychology as a Discipline
Room: John Steinback
Section: H. Other

Applied political psycholgy: The challenges of creating start-up organization
William McConochie, Testmaster Inc.

The ineluctable pedagogy of political science
Ted Wrigley, University of California, Irvine

Psychosocial theory promotes affiliation more than prediction
John O. Beahrs, Oregon Health and Sciences University

Political psychology in Brazil: Then, now and thereafter
*Cornelis van Stralen, Federal University of Minas Gerais
Robson Nascimento da Cruz, Federal University of Minas Gerais

Chair: Rene Calandria, University of Santo Tomas
Discussants: Anika Leithner, California Polytechnic State University & Art Kendall, U.S. Social Research Consultants

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 4:00-5:45 pm

W4.1 Political Psychology of Terrorism
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Why terrorism does not work
Max Abrahms, UCLA

Profiling in counter terrorism: Limiting its hazards and improving its benefits
Max Metselaar, Department of Defence, The Netherlands

The political psychology of terrorism five years after September 11
*James N. Breckenridge, PGSP-Stanford Consortium
Philip G. Zimbardo, Stanford University

Wholly terrorism and holey democracy in the Holy Land
Daphna Canetti-Nisim, University of Haifa

Chair: Rebecca Morgan, Defence Science and Technology Laboratory, UK
Discussant: Helen Purkitt, U.S. Naval Academy

W4.2 Images of Leaders and Character Assessments
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

The effects of war on the public image of political leaders: Israeli prime minister Olmert and Lebanon Hezbollah leader Nasrallah
*Shaul Kimhi, Tel Hai Academic College
Yohanan Eshel, Tel Hai Academic College and University of Haifa

Image theory and leader trait analysis (ITA): An integrated analysis of Bill Clinton and George W. Bush
*Martha Cottam, Washington State University
Thomas Preston, Washington State University

Validating psychohistorical propositions: Some examples of the disconfirmation triad
William R. Meyers, University of Cincinnati

Psychological profile of Kim Jong IL
Ronald Turco, Oregon Health and Science University

Chair: Paul Hathaway, Idaho State University
Discussant: Fiona Butcher, Defense Science and Technology Laboratory, UK

W4.3 Evaluating Candidates and Leaders
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Cognitive-affective models of political leaders' typologies in transitioning public consciousness: Ukrainian experimental studies
Pavel Frolov, Institute for Social and Political Psychology, Kiev, Ukraine
*Dmitriy Poznyak, Institute for Social and Political Psychology, Kiev, Ukraine

Understanding vs. prediction in candidate evaluation
David Redlawsk, University of Iowa

Political behavior from first impressions of candidate attributes
*Kyle Mattes, California Institute of Technology
R. Michael Alvarez, California Institute of Technology
Michael Spezio, California Institute of Technology

Political scandals: When the personal becomes political Scott Brenton, Australian National University

Chair: David Pearl, Washington State University
Discussants: Donald Sylvan, Ohio State University & Sandra Marquart-Pyatt, Utah State University

W4.4 Campaigns and the Communication of Political messages
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Love and punishment in an electoral campaign: Venezuela 2006
*Maritza Montero, Universidad Central de Venezuela
Carlos Silva, Universidad Central de Venezuela

Presidential campaign strategies for targeting high turnout minorities
Terri Susan Fine, University of Central Florida

Going Public reconsidered: A replication and extension of Kernell's "Going Public"
Amy Carter, Westminster College

Legislative redistricting: How the print media conveys messages about the use of race
*Grace Deason, University of Minnesota
Damla Ergun, University of Minnesota
Eugene Borgida, University of Minnesota
Guy-Uriel Charles, University of Minnesota

Chair: Orit Ichilov, Tel-Aviv University
Discussants: Glen Smith, Washington State University & Michael Cobb, North Carolina State University

W4.5 Emotion and Cognition
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

The relationship between affective states and the structure
*Corrie Hunt, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities
*Damla Ergun, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities Christopher Federico, University of Minnesota-Twin Cities

The political consequences of trait anxiety and ineffective coping
Magen Knuth, Stony Brook University

Cognitions, the American constitution, and campaign finance reform
Bill Kreml, University of South Carolina

Chair: Mary E. Clark, George Mason University
Discussant: Mary E. Clark, George Mason University

W4.6 Public Reaction
Room: John Steinback
Section: H. Other

The EDSA revolution: Re-interpreting the Filipino psyche
Rene Calandria, University of Santo Tomas

The sociopolitical symbolism and its implications of the Kozloduy NPP closures
Julia Terlinchamp, Fulbright Commission of Bulgaria

Turning friend to foe? Squandering America's soft power in Europe
Anika Leithner, California Polytechnic State University

Contending histories and the perception of threat
*Peter Gries, University of Oklahoma
Jennifer Prewitt-Freilino, University of Oklahoma
Luz-Eugenia Cox-Fuenzalida, University of Oklahoma

Chair: William McConochie, Testmaster Inc.
Discussant: Cornelis van Stralen, Federal University of Minas Gerais

W4.7 Roundtable: Honoring Roberta Sigel
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: H. Other

Sue Tolleson, Rinehart UNC
Kristen Monroe, University of California, Irvine
Marilyn Hoskin, State University of New York, Buffalo
Doris Graber, University of Illinois, Chicago
M. Kent Jennings, University of California, Santa Barbara

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 6:00-7:00 pm

Junior Scholars Social Hour (for junior scholars: graduate students and untenured persons within eight years of degree)
Room: Multnomah Wine Cellar (at the Embassy Suites)

WEDNESDAY, JULY 4TH 7:00-8:30 pm

Opening Reception (fee and reservation required)
Location: Jean Vollum Natural Capital Center

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 7:30-9:00 am

Political Psychology Editorial Board Meeting

Room: Multnomah Wine Cellar (at the Embassy Suites)

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 9:00-10:45 am

T1.1 Decisions for War & Peace: Vietnam, Iraq & the GWOT
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Metaphors, analogies, and realities in the war on terror
Martha Crenshaw, Wesleyan University

Bombing versus negotiating: The effect of perceptions of bias on attitudes towards combating terrorism
Emily Pronin, Princeton University

When America turned toward peace
Lori Helene Gronich, Georgetown University

The threat of death and policy preferences
Jeff Greenberg, University of Arizona

War versus justice: Framing state response to terrorist attack
Clark McCauley, Bryn Mawr College

Chair: Christ'l de Landtsheer, University of Antwerp
Discussant: Neil Ferguson, Liverpool Hope University

T1.2 Gender and Politics
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

The ideology of intersubjectivity: Jessica Benjamin's approach to politics
Gal Gerson, University of Haifa

The influence of gender on participation in politics: A multi-national analysis
*Kerry Kleyman, University of Nevada, Reno
R. David Hayward, University of Nevada, Reno
James Richardson, University of Nevada, Reno

Gender and political socialization of dominance
*Beate Kuepper, University of Bielefeld
Andreas Zick, University of Technology Dresden

Chair: Ariel Malka, Stanford University
Discussant: Janice R. Adelman, Claremont Graduate University

T1.3 Roundtable: Assessing the Personal Characteristics of Political Leaders
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

Margaret Hermann, Syracuse University
Steven Rubenzer, Foundation for the Study of Personality in History
Thomas Faschingbauer, Foundation for the Study of Personality in History
Aubrey Immelman, St. John's University, MN

T1.4 Public Response to Elite Decision Making
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Perception of the futurity of the Russian Federation by the Russian citizens
Tatiana Pishcheva, Moscow State University

Voice in complex decision making: The effects of procedural voice on trust in decision makers and acceptance of decisions
*Bart Terwel, Leiden University
Fieke Harinck, Leiden University
Naomi Ellemers, Leiden University
Dancker Daamen, Leiden University

Public acceptance of decisions: How trustworthiness of organizations can affect information processing and attitude formation
*Emma Ter Mors, Leiden University
Mieneke Weenig, Leiden University
Naomi Ellemers, Leiden University
Dancker Daamen, Leiden University

Political rhetoric and patterns of belief change
Jennifer Jerit, Florida State University

Chair: Beth Miller, University of Missouri-Kansas City
Discussant: Ted Brader, University of Michigan

T1.5 Information and Political Communication
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Political issues in the press: An experimental study of media effects
Glen Smith, Washington State Univeristy

Psychological effects of films on political violence
*Cheryl Koopman, Stanford University
Lisa Butler, Stanford University
Rose McDermott, University of California, Santa Barbara
Oxana Palesh, University of Rochester
Philip G. Zimbardo, Stanford University

The drama of politics: Developing civic competence via tv-dramas
*Tereza Capelos, Leiden University
Konstantinos Vadratsikas, Leiden University

Images affect opinion more than words in the case of Abu Ghraib
*John Fulwider, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Kelly Greenhill, Wesleyan and Harvard Universities
David Weaver, University of California-Santa Barbara

Chair: Ted Wrigley, University of California, Irvine
Discussants: Ted Wrigley, University of California, Irvine & Tony Carey, Stony Brook University

T1.6 Causes, Correlates, and Political Consequences of Shared Beliefs
Room: Roy Yates
Section: H. Other

When self-censorship norms backfire: Political correctness and the communication of negative stereotypes
*Janelle Gornick, University of Montana
Amanda Salcido, University of Montana

Politics and non-thoughtful persuasion over time
*Amanda Salcido, University of Montana
Kate Bongard, University of Montana
Janelle Gornick, University of Montana
Emily Lorentzen, University of Montana

Republican versus Democratic governmental restriction in the United States: similarities and differences
*Kate Bongard, University of Montana
Meghan Moran, University of Montana

Chair: Thalia Magioglou, University of Picardie
Discussant: Thalia Magioglou, University of Picardie

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 11:00-12:45 am

T2.1 Junior Scholars Publishing Roundtable
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

Leonie Huddy, Stony Brook University, Co-Editor of Political Psychology
Stanley Feldman, Stony Brook University, Co-Editor of Political Psychology
Chuck Taber, Stony Brook University, Co-Editor of Political Psychology
Howard Lavine, Stony Brook University, Co-Editor of Political Psychology
Dennis Chong, Northwestern University, Co-Editor of the Cambridge University Press book series "Cambridge Studies in Public Opinion and Political Psychology"

T2.2 Psychology and Ethics (sponsored by the Caucus of Concerned Scholars)
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

The politics of difference
Kristen Monroe, University of California, Irvine

Woman as the other: Ethical responses to questions of (m)otherhood in multicultural societies
Catarina Kinnvall, Lund University

The impact of political conflict on socio-political reasoning in Northern Ireland
Neil Ferguson, Liverpool Hope University

Chair: Daphna Canetti-Nisim, University of Haifa
Discussant: Daphna Canetti-Nisim, University of Haifa

T2.3 Analyzing Social Capital in Theory and Practice
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: B. Citizenship and Democratic Values

How the concepts of self-categorization and social identification can enrich social capital theory
Sonja Zmerli, University of Technology, Darmstadt

Inequality and isolation: How economic stratification harms bridging social capital
Alina Oxendine, Hamline University

Political cynicism: Characteristics and consequences of a growing phenomenon
*Peggy Schyns, Leiden University
Christel Koop, Leiden University

Chair: Jose Infante, Universidad Autanoma de Nuevo Lean
Discussant: Sandra Marquart-Pyatt, Utah State University

T2.4 Religiosity and Religious Fundamentalism
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Religion and family values
Jerome Braun, Independent scholar

Religiosity and economic policy preferences: The competing influences of conservative identity and prosocial value orientation
*Ariel Malka, Stanford University
Dale Miller, Stanford University

Race and ethnic differences in religious based political behavior: Is the religious right just another political interest group?
*James Jackson, University of Michigan
Brian Krenz, University of Michigan
Nakesha Faison, University of Michigan

Religion and political volunteering: A look into international data
*Janice Adelman, Claremont Graduate University
Allen M. Omoto, Claremont Graduate University

Chair: Boris Bizumic, Australian National University
Discussant: Neil Kressel, William Paterson University

T2.5 Information Processing
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Cognitive strategies and direct democracy: How can citizens process the information they need?
Alessandro Nai, University of Geneva

Corruption and democracy: Exploring contextual influences of public opinion in West Africa
Carrie Konold, University of Michigan

Failing to recall: The role of interference in the forgetting of campaign information
Beth Miller, University of Missouri-Kansas City

Cognitive style and political learning in the 2004 U.S. presidential campaign
Thomas Holbrook, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Chair: Jennifer Jerit, Florida State University
Discussant: Jennifer, Jerit Florida State University

T2.6 Metaphors We Communicate With
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

A dual-process theory of metaphorical persuasion
Todd Hartman, Stony Brook University

Politics, culture and language: Jacques Lacan and the symbolic language: then, now, and hereafter
Maryse Touboul, George Washington University

The implicit motives of terrorist groups
Allison Smith, University of Maryland

Chair: Cheryl Koopman, Stanford University
Discussants: John Fulwider, University of Nebraska-Lincoln & Grace Deason, University of Minnesota

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 1:00-1:45 pm

ISPP Business Meeting (open to all)
Room: Roy Yates

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 2:00-3:45 pm

T3.1 Conflict, Terror and the Aftermath
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

The U.S. Catholic Church as an international human rights NGO since 9/11/01
Benedict DeDominicis, Wright State University

Psychological aspects of the descent into violence in Northern Ireland: Structure, choice, and culture
David Schmitt, Northeastern University

Former combatants and civil society in Northern Ireland
James McAuley, University of Huddersfield

Nous sommes tous "Américains": The relationship between identifying with the victims of terrorist attacks, mortality salience, and support for restrictions on civil liberties in fighting the War on Terror
*Enoch Landau, Wilfrid Laurier University
S. Mark Pancer, Wilfrid Laurier University

Chair: Dimitra Pahis, University of Surrey
Discussant: Clark McCauley, Bryn Mawr

T3.2 Critical Theory and Hegemony
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Ideology and critical psychology: The sad fate of a concept
Tod Sloan, Lewis and Clark College

Hegemonic ideology of subsidized housing policies: rights vs. problems
Adrienne Arnold, University of Washington

The value of security vs. the security of values: The relationship between the security of the majority and the rights of the minoirty in Israel
Ronnie Olesker, Tufts University

Chair: Beate Kuepper, University of Bielefeld
Discussant: Gal Gerson, University of Haifa

T3.3 Public Opinion Formation
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Framing theory
*Dennis Chong, Northwestern University
James Druckman, Northwestern University

How public policies influence political knowledge and attitudes
Jason Barabas, Florida State University

A multidimensional approach to political emotion: New evidence on the emotional foundations of public opinion
*Ted Brader, University of Michigan
Nicholas Valentino, University of Michigan

Misinformation and its' effects on candidate impressions
Michael Cobb, North Carolina State University

Chair: Emma Ter Mors, Leiden University
Discussant: Thomas Holbrook, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

T3.4 Symbols, Signs, and Colors in Political Communication
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Political symbols in Japan

Ofer Feldman, Doshisha University

Political advertisments in the Canadian federal election of 2006: A content analysis
Paul Nesbitt-Larking, Huron University College

Does every picture tell a story? Political cartoons and the Dutch general elections of November 2006
Joop van Holsteyn, Leiden University

Sergej Tschachotin and the war of symbols in the Weimar Republic
Klaus Wasmund, University of Technology and Science

Chair: Klaus Wasmund, University of Technology and Science
Discussant: Ofer Feldman, Doshisha University

T3.5 Political Neuroscience: Implicit Networks and Explicit Judgments
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Dispassionate and passionate visions of mind and brain: Imaging and interpreting political networks
Drew Westen, Emory University

Of rats and men: Implicit associations to political figures
Joel Weinberger, Adelphi University

Chair: Charles Taber, Stony Brook University
Discussant: Charles Taber, Stony Brook University

T3.6 The Causes of Complex Thinking: Integrative Complexity, Politics, and Religion
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: H. Other

Two ways to be integratively complex and why they matter
*Kirsten Towgood, University of Montana
Terah Blake, University of Montana
Mike Wagner University of Montana

The relationship between heritability and integrative complexity in political and non-political attitudes
*Dan Dodds, University of Montana
Stacey McClure, University of Montana
Brittany Hampton, University of Montana

Religion and integrative complexity: survey results and a case study of C.S. Lewis
*Amy Allison, University of Montana
Emily Lorentzen, University of Montana
Stacey McClure, University of Montana

U.S. presidential personalities and integrative complexity
*Lucian Conway, University of Montana
Mike Wagner, University of Montana

Chair: Lucian Conway, University of Montana
Discussant: Peter Suedfeld, University of British Columbia

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 4:00-5:45 pm

Junior Scholars Mentoring Coffee Hour
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

T4.1 Conflict in Comparative Perspective
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Political ideologies of children in Kashmir
Chandrani Dasgupta, Tata Institute of Social Sciences

Trauma, justice and reconciliation in Kurdistan Iraq
Tanyel Taysi, University of Kurdistan-Hawler

Incorporating political, and social, trust and emotions in a model of inter-ethnic conflict resolution: The case of Cyprus
*Dimitra Pahis, University of Surrey
*Evanthia Lyons, Social Psychology European Research Institute

Chair: Lori Helene, Gronich Georgetown University
Discussant: Cigdem Sirin, Texas A&M University

T4.2 Evaluating Tolerance using Case-study and Cross-national Approaches
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: B. Citizenship and Democratic Values

The other one in Mexican politics
Jose Infante, Universidad Autonoma de Nuevo Leon

Same-sex marriage in Illinois: a public policy analysis
Laura Johnson, Chicago School of Professional Psychology

Political tolerance in cross-national context
Sandra Marquart-Pyatt, Utah State University

Tolerance judgments in multicultural democracies: Target groups and the role of social diversity
Allison Harell, McGill University

Chair: Peggy Schyns, Leiden University
Discussant: Alina Oxendine, Hamline University

T4.3 Grouping Ideology in Mind Behavior
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

The genetics of political ideology
*John R. Hibbing, University of Nebraska Lincoln
John R. Alford, Rice University

The palliative function of conservative ideology
*Jaime L. Napier, New York University
John T. Jost, New York University

Ideology informs structure: Attitudinal strength and implicit-explicit consistency in the everyday attitudes of liberals and conservatives
*Margarita Krochik, New York University
Brian Nosek, University of Virginia

Need for closure and conflict-strategy preferences: Experimental evidence for the moderating effect of salient conflict schemas
*Agnieszka Golec de Zavala, Middlesex University
Christopher Federico, University of Minnesota

Chair: Margarita Krochik, New York University
Discussant: Drew Westen, Emory University

T4.4 Ideology
Room: Roy Yates
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

How stable are prejudice and ideology? Evidence of variability as a function of motivational orientation
*Boris Bizumic, Australian National University
Katherine J. Reynolds, Australian National University
John C. Turner, Australian National University
Emina Subasic, Australian National University
Susan C. Johnson, Australian National University

When moderate religion fails: Some social and psychological roots of extremist faith
Neil Kressel, William Paterson University

Ideological position and political attitudes: Comparing three generations in Chile
*Andres Haye, Universidad Catolica de Chile
Carolina Segovia, Universidad Catolica de Chile
Jorge Manzi, Universidad Catolica de Chile
Roberto Gonzalez, Universidad Catolica de Chile

Psycho-colonialism: Issues on Niger-Delta Offensive
Peter Offu, University of Malaya

Chair: Todd Sloan, Lewis and Clark College
Discussant: James Jackson, University of Michigan

T4.5 Political Cognition and Attitudes
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Politics in black and brown: The role of economic conditions on black-latino conflict
Tony Carey Jr., Stony Brook University

The mechanisms and structures of political cognition
Shawn Rosenberg, University of California, Irvine
*Ted Wrigley, University of California, Irvine
Farah Tabibkhoei, University of California, Irvine

Political metaphors and their automatic activation
Todd Hartman, Stony Brook University

The effect of self-interest on political information processing: The case of national health insurance
Richard Lau, Rutgers University

Chair: Tereza Capelos, Leiden University
Discussant: Maryse Touboul, George Washington University

T4.6 Culture
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: H. Other

Radical political beliefs: the effects of perceived inconsistency in the defence of revolutionary socialism
*Jennifer Sheehy-Skeffington, London School of Economics and Political Science
Bradley Franks, London School of Economics and Political Science

Societal political psychology and the importance of culture: a European perspective
Thalia Magioglou, University of Picardie

Cooperative learning and social interdependence on politics
Cholichul Hadi, Airlangga University

Chair: Jennifer Sheehy-Skeffington, London School of Economics and Political Science

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 6:00-7:00 pm

Presidential Address by George Marcus: Blinded by the Light: Aspiration and Inspiration in Political Psychology
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

THURSDAY, JULY 5TH 7:00-8:00 pm

Meeting of Program Chairs and Section Heads for 2008 meeting (2007 Heads Invited)
Room: Roy Yates

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 9:00-10:45 am

F1.1 Framing, Prospect Theory & Cognitive Models of Decision Making
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Social dilemmas and strategic prospect theory
Christopher K. Butler, University of New Mexico

A cognitive explanation for patterns of U.S. intelligence community behavior
David Mastro, West Virginia University

Understanding the failure of Camp David 2000 negotiations between Israel and the PLO: A prospect theory approach
Ronnie Olesker, Tufts University

The effects of national security on immigration policy
Gallya Lahav, Stony Brook University
*Marie Courtemanche, Stony Brook University

Chair: Robert Williams, Metropolitan Community College-Maple Woods
Discussant: Anthony C. Lopez, University of California, Santa Barbara

F1.2 The Social Psychology of System Support
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Working for the system: Cognitive and behavioral defense of the American dream
*Alison Ledgerwood, New York University
John T. Jost, New York University
Anesu Mandisodza, New York University
Michelle Pohl, New York University

The psychological advantage of the status quo
*Christian S. Crandall, University of Kansas

Scott Eidelman, University of Maine

The effect of system justification tendencies on environmental attitudes and actions
*Irina Feygina, New York University
Rachel Goldsmith, New York University
John T. Jost, New York University

Person-organization congruence and the maintenance of group-based social hierarchy: a social dominance perspective
Jim Sidanius, Harvard University

Chair: Alison Ledgerwood, New York University

F1.3 Roundtable: The Psychology of Presidential Decision Making
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

Stephen Walker, Arizona State University
David Winter, University of Michigan
Margaret Hermann, Syracuse University
Charles Taber, Stony Brook University
Deborah Larson, UCLA
Tom Preston, Washington State University

F1.4 Crime, Punishment and Social Justice
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Social representations of stability and justice: the comparative research
Larisa Pautova, Omsk State University
Denys Kiryukhin, National Academy of Science, Ukraine
Svetlana Shcherbak, National Academy of Science, Ukraine

The psychology of punishment and reconciliation: an evolutionary approach
Michael Petersen, University of Aarhus

Justice ideologies and voter participation
Muehleck Kai, Humboldt University Berlin

Chair: Ewa Golebiowska, Wayne State University
Discussant: David Smith, University of Kansas

F1.5 Words of Faith – Religion and Political Communication
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Religious campaign rhetoric: Understanding the effects of religious language on political preferences
Chris Chapp, University of Minnesota

In the name of god the creator: Beliefs about evolution and creationism a contextualized, psychological framework
Andrew Thomas, Washington State University

Changing relationships between religion and politics: a longitudinal, multi-generational analysis
*M. Kent Jennings, University of California, Santa Barbara
Laura Stoker, University of California, Berkeley

Right-wing authoritarianism, fundamentalism, and peaceableness
Lucian Conway, University of Montana

Chair: Melinda Jackson, San Jose State University
Discussants: Jay Barth, Hendrix College & Rezarta Bilali, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

F1.6 Rationality/Emotionality in International Crises
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Reconstructing the U.S. response to the Pueblo hostage crisis of 1968: a cognitive perspective
David Houghton, University of Central Florida

Foreign policy choice and the status quo
Aaron Rapport, University of Minnesota

Intelligence failures or political denial? How political leaders cope with impending dangers
Max Metselaar, Department of Defence, The Netherlands

Does emotionality impact elite decision-making? Lessons from threats to national security

Dana Adams, University of Minnesota

Chair: Belinda Bragg, Rowan University
Discussant: Nehemia Geva, Texas A&M University

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 11:00-12:45 am

F2.1 Junior Scholars Mentoring Roundtable
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

Paul Nesbitt-Larking, Huron University College
Rose McDermott, University of California, Santa Barbara
Christopher Federico, University of Minnesota
Neil Ferguson, Liverpool Hope University
Orla Muldoon, Queens University

F2.2 Roundtable: Beyond the Banality of Evil
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

George Marcus, Wiliams College
Alex Haslam, University of Exeter
Stephen Reicher, University of St. Andrews
Michael Schmitt, Simon Fraser University

F2.3 Roundtable: Leadership Trait Analysis Profiling
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

Thomas Preston, Washington State University
Katie Searles, Washington State University
Azamat Sakiev, Syracuse University
Maja Graso, Washington State University
Abbey Jorstad, Washington State University
David Pearl, Washington State University
Robert Anderson, Washington State University

F2.4 Challenges of Democracy, Democratization, and Economic Development
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Revolutionary colors
Natalia Kovalyova, University of Texas, Austin

China's political communication on Sino-Japan relations: a political psychological perspective
Dexiang Gao, National University of Singapore

Does popular culture help or hinder democratization?
Natalia Kovalyova,University of Texas, Austin

The impact of Nigeria's regional security interventions
Peter Offu, University of Malaya

Chair: Stephen Wright, Simon Fraser University
Discussant: Kjell Tarnblom, University of Skövde

F2.5 Experimental Tests of Emotion and Conflict
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Do grievances matter: An experimental examination of the greed vs. grievance debate
*Belinda Bragg, Rowan University
Renat Shaykhutdinov, Texas A&M University

Do participants and observers assess intentions differently during bargaining and conflict? An experiment
Eric Dickson, New York University

Thematic relevance of negative emotions and their influence on foreign policy on terror
*Nehemia Geva, Texas A&M University
Cigdem Sirin Texas A&M University
Keren Sharvit, Tel Aviv University

Unpacking the emotional responses to casualties across international conflicts: militarized disputes versus terrorism
Katrina Mosher, Texas A&M University

Chair: Christopher Weber, Stony Brook University
Discussant: Christopher Weber, Stony Brook University

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 1:00-1:45 pm

Key Note Address by John Cacioppo: Neuroscience of Social Connection
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 2:00-3:45 pm

F3.1 The Roots of Conflict and Cooperation
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Recasting conflict with simulation games: Changing competitive attitudes and behaviors to cooperative ones
*Alexander Williams, William Jewell College
*Robert Williams, Metropolitan Community College-Maple Woods

The evolutionary psychology of war: Cognitive adaptations for offensive and defensive coalitional aggression
Anthony C. Lopez, University of California, Santa Barbara

Why do followers follow malignant leaders?
Rauf garagozov, Institute of Strategic Studies of the Caucasus

Deal, or no deal: An experimental study of crises and attitudes toward international cooperation in Mexico and the United States
*Jennifer Merolla, Claremont Graduate University
Jennifer Ramos, University of California, Davis
Elizabeth Zechmeister, University of California, Davis

Chair: David Mastro, University of West Virginia
Discussants: Christopher K. Butler, University of New Mexico & Albert Pepitone, University of Pennsylvania

F3.2 Personality, Ideology, and Motivated Social Cognition
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Why are people liberal? Examining political liberalism using a motivated social cognition perspective
Becky L. Choma, Brock University

Motivated social cognition and ideology: Is attention to elite discourse a prerequisite for epistemically motivated political preferences?
*Christopher Federico, University of Minnesota
Paul Goren, University of Minnesota

Personality, politics, and personal ideology: right and left
*Michelle Albaugh, Northwestern University
Dan McAdams, Northwestern University

Exploring links between personality and political orientation and identification
*Eric Whitaker, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
John Fulwider, University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Mitchel Herian, University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Chair: Jaime L. Napier, New York University
Discussant: James Jackson, University of Michigan

F3.3 Roundtable: Intractable Problems in Human Politics
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

John O. Beahrs, Oregon Health and Science University
Claudette H. Beahrs, Oregon Health and Science University
Glenn R. Pascall, University of Washington

F3.4 Authoritarianism, Social Dominance and Threat
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Authoritarianism and knowledge of U.S. unilateralist behavior as predictors of perceived interpersonal traits of the U.S. government within the U.K.
*Stanley Gaines, Brunel University
Jordelle Blackstock, Jaspreet Chana, Sarah Chouman, Emma Eden, Natalie Kanakam, Zara Lemuel, Caroline Meara, Lauren Meltzer, Amena Nadeem, Jodi Nicholls, Ayo Parchment, Laura Pearson, and Neriman Yetkil, Brunel University

New frontiers in the study of authoritarianism
*David Smith, University of Kansas
Eric Hanley, University of Kansas

Experimental investigation of public opinion toward legal and illegal immigrants
Ewa Golebiowska, Wayne State University
Samra Nasser, Wayne State University

Chair: Muehleck Kai, Humboldt University Berlin
Discussant: Muehleck Kai, Humboldt University Berlin

F3.5 Trust: Determinants and Impact
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Dimensions of social trust, volunteering, and civic participation in the U.S. and Albania
Rezarta Bilali, University of Massachusetts, Amherst

Institutional economics of co-operation and the political economy of trust
Jose Vargas-Hernandez, Instituto tecnoagico de Cd. Guzman

Social justice and polity: a multiple resource production approach
*Kjell Tarnblom, University of Skövde
Ali Kazemi, University of Skövde

Chair: M. Kent Jennings, University of California, Santa Barbara
Discussants: Lucian Conway, University of Montana & Andrew Thomas, Washington State University

F3.6 Emotions and Intergroup Relations
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Seeing red, feeling blue: The emotional basis of partisan polarization
Leonie Huddy, Stony Brook University
*Lilliana Mason, Stony Brook University

Group-focused enmity and ideologies of acculturation in Europe – a critical link andreas
*Zick, University of Technology Dresden
Beate Kuepper, University of Bielefeld

Anger, fear and whites' racial policy preferences
Antoine Banks, University of Michigan

Chair: Katrina Mosher, Texas A&M University
Discussant: Elizabeth Suhay, University of Michigan

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 4:00-5:45 pm

F4.1 Roundtable: Real World, Global and Local, Applications of Psychoanalytically-informed Political Psychology
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

Michael Diamond, University of Missouri-Columbia
Howard Stein, University of Oklahoma, Health Sciences Center

F4.2 System Justification and Victim-Blaming
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Legitimation and justice ideologies in contexts of extreme economic inequality: Three developing countries in comparative perspective
Juan Castillo, Humboldt University Berlin

Childhood abuse and system justification: A legacy of disillusionment with the status quo
*Rachel Goldsmith, Mount Sinai School of Medicine
Irina Feygina, New York University
John T. Jost, New York University

The psychological implications of race as a political construction
Monique Lyle, Duke University

Chair: Christian S. Crandall, University of Kansas
Discussant: Alison Ledgerwood, New York University

F4.3 Political Psychology During War and Crisis

Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Affective orientation and nonverbal leader communication: Viewer evaluations of presidential performance in times of crisis
Erik P. Bucy, Indiana University

Pacifists at war: Rule and exception in the integrative complexity of German decisionmakers
Jeffrey Martinson, Meredith College

Misperceptions of the Iraq War, right-wing authoritarianism, and social-dominance orientation
*Philip Dunwoody, Juniata College
Dennis Plane, Juniata College
Devin Rice, Juniata College
Haley Rothrock, Juniata College

F4.4 Group Based Appeals in Political Communication
Room: Sam Hill
Section: F. Political Communication and Socialization

Direct and extended contact in a multi-ethnic context
*Stephen Wright, Simon Fraser University
*Joseph Comeau, Simon Fraser University
Art Aron, SUNY at Stony Brook

Priming political identity through the life cycle
*Melinda Jackson, San Jose State University
Michael Vallerga, San Jose State University

Explicit and implicit: the persistence of group-based appeals in radio campaign advertising
*Jay Barth, Hendrix College
L. Marvin Overby, University of Missouri

Mechanisms of small group deliberation
Tali Mendelberg, Princeton

Chair: Natalia Kovalyova, University of Texas, Austin
Discussants: Natalia Kovalyova, University of Texas, Austin & Chris Chapp, University of Minnesota

F4.5 The Power of Emotions in Political Communication
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Searching under stress: Anxiety and selective information exposure
Melissa Surawski, University of New Hampshire

Fear and learning in the illegal immigration debate: How do anxious citizens get their news?
Bethany Albertson, University of Washington

The social-emotional influence model: Does priming pride and shame make political opinions more compelling?
Elizabeth Suhay, University of Michigan

Exploring the role of discrete emotions in political advertising
Christopher Weber, Stony Brook University

Chair: Andreas Zick, University of Technology Dresden
Discussant: Eric Dickson, New York University

F4.6 Emotions and Information
Room: Roy Yates
Section: G. Neuroscience and Emotion

Going to war: Anger, knowledge, partisanship and the media
Leonie Huddy, Stony Brook University
Stanley Feldman, Stony Brook University
*George Marcus, Williams College

Selective exposure in the internet age: Emotional triggers of political information seeking Nick Valentino, University of Michigan

The role of emotion on how people think and reason about political events and public policy
*Cengiz Erisen, Stony Brook University
Milton Lodge, Stony Brook University
Charles S. Taber, Stony Brook University

Chair: John Hibbing, University of Nebraska

Discussants: John Hibbing, University of Nebraska & David Tabb, San Francisco State

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 7:30-8:30 pm

Awards Dinner (fee and reservation required)
Location: Classical Chinese Gardens

FRIDAY, JULY 6TH 8:30-9:00 pm

Awards Presentation (fee and reservation required)
Location: Classical Chinese Gardens

SATURDAY, JULY 7TH 9:00-10:45 am

S1.1 Personality and Psychodynamic Models of Conflict
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

The "frustration-aggression" syndrome as an instigator of terrorism
Nitza Nachmias, University of Haifa

The influence of personality on practitioner process strategies
Kathryn McGovern, The Maxwell School, Syracuse University

PsychoActivism – past, present and future: Examining the Israeli-Palestinian case
Nissim Avissar, Bar-Ilan University, Sheba Hospital

Chair: Kathryn McGovern, The Maxwell School, Syracuse University

S1.2 Social Identity In Political Contexts
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Political identity concerning emotions and behavior towards a disadvantaged outgroup
*Bianca Jansen, University of Sussex
John Drury, University of Sussex

Psychological distance, group size and intergroup relations
*Jeremy Ginges, New School for Social Research
Shahar Eyal, Open University of Israel

Indicators of ideology: The role of social identity in Ukraine
Oksana Malanchuk, University of Michigan

Exploring the social and political psychology of vegetarians living among meat eaters
Keith Rozendal, California State University Channel Islands

Chair: Masum Momaya, Harvard Graduate School of Education
Discussant: Salie Abrahams, International Peace University South Africa

S1.3 Nationalism and Patriotism
Room: Sam Hill
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

The contemporary Russian nationalism in perceptions of Russian mass public
Timur Polyannikov, State University Higher School of Economics
*Medvedeva Svetlana, Moscow State University

The emotional difference between nationalism and patriotism
Heinrich Horst-Alfred, University of Stuttgart

Effects of Japanese national identity on attitudes toward learning English
*Robert Schatz, Metropolitan State College of Denver
Nancy Sullivan, Texas A&M University, Corpus Christi

Sources of nationalism among Poles, Czechs, and Germans before and after the expansion of the European Union to eastern Europe
*Angela Kindervater, Jacobs University
Klaus Boehnke, Jacobs University
Susanne Rippl, Jacobs University
Anke Petrat, Jacobs University

Chair: Gail Sahar, Wheaton College
Discussant: Gail Sahar, Wheaton College

S1.4 Decision Making and Leadership Attributes
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

The psychological effects of an addicted parent: the case of Ronald Reagan
Robert E. Gilbert, Northeastern University

Elevating the vice presidency: the leadership of Jimmy Carter
Joel Goldstein, Saint Louis University

Beware of false positives
Anastasia Kucharski, Harvard

DCI William Casey: How an advisor became a key policy maker
Scott Crichlow, West Virginia University

Chair: Steve Rubenzer, Foundation for the Study of Personality in History
Discussant: Aubrey Immelman, St. John's University, MN

S1.5 Political Identity in Action
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

I'm going to fight for my beliefs: The effect of moral conviction on activism about physician-assisted suicide
*Brad Lytle, University of Illinois, Chicago
Linda J Skitka, University of Illinois, Chicago

Identifying with the lesser of two evils: Dynamic information processing strategies underlying partisan stability
*Eric Groenendyk, University of Michigan

Conflicted Ideology and Vote Choice
*Judd Thornton, Michigan State University
Kris Dunn, Michigan State University

The influence of national identity and civic norms on political involvement
Nadia Khatib, University of Arizona

Chair: Zoe Oxley, Union College
Discussants: Zoe Oxley, Union College & Toby Bolsen, Northwestern University

SATURDAY, JULY 7TH 11:00-12:45 am

S2.1 Junior Scholars Career Development Roundtable
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

Gail Sahar, Wheaton College
Steven Reicher, University of St. Andrews
Christ'l de Landtsheer, University of Antwerp
Nick Valentino, University of Michigan

S2.2 Understanding the Roots of Violence
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

The relationships between racism, islamophobia, religious dogmatism and attitudes toward war
*Venus Nicolino, California School of Professional Psychology
Paula Johnson, California School of Professional Psychology

Reading from a blank page: How does strategic studies view violent groups and their formation?
Robert Barrett, University of Calgary

Young men and women signify peace
Stella Sacipa, Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogota, Colombia

Chair: Nitza Nachmias, University of Haifa
Discussant: Kathryn McGovern, Maxwell School, Syracuse University

S2.3 Political Psychological Approaches to Democratic Commitment and System Support
Room: Roy Yates
Section: B. Citizenship and Democratic Values

The many facets of obedience and disobedience and their role in democratic support
*Davide Morselli, University of Bologna
Stefano Passini, University of Bologna

Judicial review of impeachment procedure: Implications for democratic stability in Nigeria
Omololu Fagbadebo Obafemi, Awolowo University

Citizen commitment to democracy in east Asia: its patterns and sources
Doh Shin, University of Missouri, Columbia

Islamist democrats: Ambiguous attitudes about secularism in Senegal
Carrie Konold, University of Michigan

Chair and Discussant: Brian Mello, Seattle University

S2.4 National and Family Trauma and Decision Making in Psychoanalytic Perspective
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

Pearl Harbor: Psychoanalytic perspectives on trauma and postwar political decision-making
David Beisel, SUNY-RCC

How presidents deal with national trauma: Nixon, Carter, and Bush
Paul Elovitz, Clio's Psyche and Ramapo College

Politics and family psychology in psychoanalytic perspective
Ken Fuchsman, University of Connecticut

Chair: Paul Elovitz, Clio's Psyche and Ramapo College
Discussant: James Lindgren, University of Chicago & Northwestern University

S2.5 Stereotypes
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Modeling stereotype construction with artificial intelligence
*Jean-Gabriel Ganascia, Laboratoire d' Informatique de Paris 6 (LIP6)
Julien Velcin, Laboratoire d' Informatique de Paris 6 (LIP6)

Assessing social desirability effects in opinion measurement: Problems in randomization and rotation strategies
Christopher Muste, University of Montana

Chair: Eric Groenendyk, University of Michigan
Discussant: Danny Hayes, Syracuse University

SATURDAY, JULY 7TH 1:00-1:45 pm

Lasswell Award Address by Jim Sidanius: The Interactive Nature of Patriarchy and Arbitrary-set Hierarchy: The Dynamics of Sexism and Racism from an Evolutionary and Social Dominance Perspective
Room: Colonel Lindbergh

SATURDAY, JULY 7TH 2:00-3:45 pm

S3.1 Political Participation, Public Protest, and Social Movements
Room: Roy Yates
Section: B. Citizenship and Democratic Values

Is this what democracy looks like? Collective subjectivity & democratic outcomes
Brian Mello, Seattle University

The visibility of difference in the public sphere: Liberals, conservatives and representations of the Iraq War protestors
Regina Tuma, Lynn University

Egalitarian vs. proportional voting in various contexts: An experimental study
*Girts Dimdins, Stockholm University
Henry Montgomery, Stockholm University
Erik Norell, Stockholm University

Motivating sources of political awareness: Do personal stakes matter?
Toby Bolsen, Northwestern University

Chair: Doh Shin, University of Missouri, Columbia
Discussants: Doh Shin, University of Missouri, Columbia

S3.2 Determinants and Consequences of Ideology
Room: Sam Hill
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Ideological determinants

Kristian Dunn, Michigan State University

Political sophistication and ideology: Another look at context theory
Vani Murugesan, UCLA

Why twin studies are problematic for the study of political attitudes: Rethinking "Are Political Orientations Genetically Transmitted?"
*Elizabeth Suhay, University of Michigan
Nathan Kalmoe, University of Michigan
Christa McDermott, University of Michigan

Chair: Christopher Federico, University of Minnesota
Discussant: Michelle Albaugh, Northwestern University

S3.3 Authoritarianism and Social Dominance
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

The myth of pure evil revisited
*Sven van de Wetering, University College of the Fraser Valley
Oscar Olvera, Shauna Svekla, Katherine Hiebert, Leili Dehghan, and Willow Brown, University College of the Fraser Valley

Authoritarianism, history and politics in the American south
Fred Slocum, Minnesota State University, Mankato

Right-wing authoritarianism and the "authority" of scripture: Effects of wording and source cues
David G. Winter, University of Michigan

Threat polarizes: Authoritarianism rises in society but drops in music post-911
*Sara Konrath, University of Michigan
Vince Guglielmello, University of Michigan
Mallory Salerno, University of Michigan
David Winter, University of Michigan

Chair: Antonio Aiello, University of Cagliari
Discussant: Winona Foote, Claremont Graduate University

S3.4 Political Discourse and Campaign Rhetoric
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

Revolutions, coups, and clashes: Predicting civil unrest in the Philippines through analysis of power, achievement, and affiliation motive imageries in political speeches
*Alanna Maguire, University of Michigan
Sara Konrath, University of Michigan

Comparative analysis of political discourse between 2006 Mexican presidential candidates
*Andres Tovilla, Universidad Iberoamericana
Rocio Willcox, Universidad Intercontinental
Marisa Alcazar, Asociacian Mexicana para la Investigacan y Enseaanza del Psicoanalisis

Expression of partisanship: a comparison of inaugural addresses and nomination acceptance speeches
Natalia Kovalyova, University of Texas, Austin

Swinging the message: Campaign styles in safe versus battleground states in the 2000 U.S. presidential election
*Henriet Hendriks, University of Minnesota
Philippe De Vries, University of Antwerp
Christ'l de Landtsheer, University of Antwerp

Chair: Jose Villalobos, Texas A&M University
Discussant: Jose Villalobos, Texas A&M University

SATURDAY, JULY 7TH 4:00-5:45 pm

S4.1 Traumatic Consequences of Political Violence and Persecution
Room: Gevurtz Ceremonal
Section: A. Conflict and Violence

The anti-cult roots of false memory syndrome: A study in reciprocal moral panics
Martin Katchen, University of Sydney

The rate of profiles indicative of severe dissociative disorders on self report measures in former members of high demand religious movements
Martin Katchen, University of Sydney

From Jews and Germans, Israelis and Palestinians to the 'Tense Triangle' between Germans, Israeli-Jews and Palestinians
Dan Bar-On, Ben Gurion University of the Negev

Chair: Stella Sacipa, Pontificia Universidad Javeriana, Bogoto, Colombia
Discussant: Nissim Avissar, Bar-Ilan University, Sheba Hospital

S4.2 On the Implicit Nature of Political Ideologies
Room: Sam Hill
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Left gut, right gut: Moral intuitions and political ideology
*Jesse Graham, University of Virginia
Jonathan Haidt, University of Virginia
Brian Nosek, University of Virginia

Implicit self-change and the ideology of social decline
Richard P. Eibach, Williams College
Lisa K. Libby, Ohio State University

Implicit American nationalism: Effects of the American flag on desire for power and materialism
*Travis J. Carter, Cornell University
Melissa J. Ferguson, Cornell University

Nonconscious system justification goal pursuit
*Ido Liviatan, New York University
John T. Jost, New York University

Chair: Travis J. Carter, Cornell University
Discussant: Becky L. Choma, Brock University

S4.3 Social Dominance Orientation and Use of Legitimizing Ideologies
Room: Eric Hauser
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Social dominance and terror management: Social dominance orientation as a moderator of mortality salience effects
*Kristin Henkel, University of Connecticut
Adam Pearson, University of Connecticut
Felicia Pratto, University of Connecticut

Framing social dominance theory: Evidence from an empirical model on essentialist beliefs
Antonio Aiello, University of Cagliari

An examination of different pathways that lead to support of hostile and benevolent types of social hierarchy
*I-Ching Lee, National Cheng-Chi University
Felicia Pratto, University of Connecticut

Social dominance orientation, legitimizing myths, and opposition to affirmative action: Asymmetry as a function of gender and education
*Winona Foote, Claremont Graduate University
Shana Levin, Claremeont McKenna College
Christopher Federico, University of Minnesota
Miriam Matthews, Claremont Graduate University

Chair: Felicia Pratto, University of Connecticut
Discussant: Jim Sidanius, Harvard University

S4.4 Patriotism
Room: Roy Yates
Section: C. Ideology, Legitimacy, and Intergroup Relations

Are patriots really more patriotic than their anti-patriotic rivals? Poking into patriotism through the Israeli case
Eyal Lewin, University of Haifa, Israel

Patriotism and attributions for the 9/11 attacks: Then and now
Gail Sahar, Wheaton College

Collective narcissism and its social consequences
Agnieszka Golec de Zavala, Middlesex University

Chair: Horst-Alfred Heinrich, University of Stuttgart
Discussant: Schatz Robert, Metropolitan State College of Denver

S4.5 Personality, Politics and Psychology
Room: Marshall Joffre
Section: D. Leadership

The political personalities of 2008 Republican presidential contenders John McCain and Rudy Giuliani
Aubrey Immelman, St. John's University (MN)

Who has the right stuff for 2008?
*Steve Rubenzer, Foundation for the Study of Personality in History
Tom Faschingbauer, Foundation for the Study of Personality in History

The centrist authoritarian
James Lindgren, University of Chicago & Northwestern University

Chair: Anastasia Kucharski, Harvard
Discussant: Scott Crichlow, West Virginia University

S4.6 Gender Stereotypes
Room: Chief Poker Jim
Section: E. Mass Behavior and Public Opinion

Appealing to women: The 2004 U.S. presidential election
*Zoe Oxley, Union College
Amy Gangl, Capella University

Sex, stereotypes, and security: An experimental study of the effect of crises on assessments of gender and leadership
*Jennifer Merolla, Claremont Graduate University
Elizabeth Zechmeister, University of California, Davis

Party and gender stereotyping in candidate trait attribution
Danny Hayes, Syracuse University

Chair: Judd Thornton, Michigan State University
Discussant: Judd Thornton, Michigan State University