Liability Release, Waiver, Discharge and Covenant Not to Sue

ISPP 2024 Annual Scientific Meeting in Santiago, Chile

This is a legally binding Release, Waiver, Discharge and Covenant Not to Sue (collectively, "Release"), made voluntarily by me, the undersigned Releasor, on my own behalf, and on behalf of my heirs, including spouse and domestic partner and children, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns (hereinafter collectively, "I" or "me") to the International Society of Political Psychology ("ISPP").

I am voluntarily participating in the ISPP 2024 Annual Conference (the "Conference") in Santiago, Chile with a full understanding of the risks involved, including those associated with the Covid-19 global pandemic, and that it is my responsibility to inform myself regarding timely and best practices in order to reduce my chance of exposure to, illness from, and retransmission of Covid-19 and related illnesses. I also assume and agree to accept any and all risks to my safety, health, security and property during the course of participating in the Conference and all travel and activities relating thereto, including without limitation any and all airline travel, ground and other transportation, meals, lodging, recreational activities, side trips, excursions, tours, and other ancillary activities relating to the Conference (collectively, "Related Activities"). I am aware that it is my responsibility to stay abreast of travel requirements (e.g., vaccinations and associated documentation, visas, passports, etc.), any risks of travel to Santiago or Chile, including risks associated with my safety, health and security. These risks include, but are not limited to, property damage and loss, death or injury resulting from accident, disease, terrorist acts, crime, or otherwise.

I acknowledge that there is currently a Level 2 Travel Warning for Santiago specifically, and/or Chile, posted by the United States Department of State, but that this situation can change at any time, and that it is my responsibility to check for current information from my country of origin and/or residence. I am aware that we are still in the midst of a global pandemic or health emergency, and that I must abide by the rules and regulations set forth by the Chilean government for travel and gatherings of large groups, as well as any rules established by the meeting venue. I am aware that any Travel Warnings or Alerts will be available for me to read on the web site found at www.travel.state.gov, or comparable source in my country of origin and/or residence, and that in advance of the event, I may periodically check the State Department's website or comparable source in my country of origin and/or residence to see if any Travel Warnings or Alerts for Santiago or Chile have been issued. I am aware that I can check on multiple web sites for requirements for travel to Chile and return travel to my country of origin/residence. ISPP assumes no responsibility for informing me of any such Travel Warnings, Alerts, or requirements or for any cancellation expenses relating thereto.

I acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding any security or health arrangements that may be made by ISPP, ISPP does not guarantee and is not responsible for my personal health or safety, nor the safety of my property while participating in the Conference or any and all Related Activities, whether arranged by ISPP, me or others. I further acknowledge that ISPP is not responsible for furnishing Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), such as face masks, even if required by the Chilean government and/or the meeting venue.

In light of the above and in consideration of being permitted to participate in the Conference, I do, for myself and my heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives and assigns, release, waive, forever discharge, indemnify and hold harmless, and covenant not to sue ISPP, its respective subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors, successors and assigns, and all of its respective past, present, and future officers, directors, shareholders, members, employees, agents, volunteers, and contractors, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives and assigns (collectively, the "Releasees"), of and from any and every claim arising from or by reason of any illness, bodily injury, personal injuries, whether known or unknown (including emotional trauma), death, or property damage resulting or alleged to have resulted from any accident, incident, or other episode that may occur, whether based upon the negligence of, or breach of contract by, any Releasee or any other party for whose acts or omissions any Releasee may be responsible in law or in fact, or any other cause or principle of law, as a result of, arising from or relating to my participation in the Conference or any activities in connection with or relating to the Conference or any and all Related Activities (collectively, the "Released Claims"). I further agree to indemnify Releasees and to hold each of them harmless from any and all liability, claim, action, damage, expense (including reasonable attorneys fees), arising from or related to any injury or illness I may sustain arising from or relating to the Released Claims.

Virtual and/or Hybrid Attendees: ISPP may provide virtual and/or hybrid access to the 2024 Annual Meeting for those who have registered for this access. This Release shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of California, United States, without reference to its conflict of laws rules, and shall be as broad and inclusive as permitted by such laws.
