

Postdoctoral Fellow

The Chinese University of Hong Kong seeks applicants for a Postdoctoral Fellow position. Applicants should have received a PhD degree in Psychology or other social sciences disciplines within the last 5 years. The postdoctoral fellow will be supervised by Professor Ying-yi Hong to investigate the interplay between culture, social identity, and intergroup relations in the context of political transitions. Job responsibilities include formulating research projects, designing experiments and surveys, and writing up publications. Applicants with strong communication skills, knowledge in DirectRT or E-prime, and statistical analysis are preferred. Information about the research and lab activity is available at Culture Lab website.

We offer a competitive package, access to excellent research facilities and an interdisciplinary research program. The start date of the position will be in 2022. The initial contract is one year with a possibility of extension.

Interested applicants should send CV, along with samples of research papers to Ms. Connie Chiu at connie.py.chiu@cuhk.edu.hk. Review of candidates will start in October 2021 and continue until the position is filled.