

Dr. Julie Wronski (Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Mississippi and ISPP ECC Ex-Officio Chair) is hosting an online writing retreat for ISPP members every first Friday of the month. The first writing session on December 2 was a huge success! Thank you to all attendees!

Join the next ISPP online writing retreat

When? 6th January at 3 pm (GMT)

Where? Online. Zoom access will be provided upon registration.

What? This workshop is a unique opportunity for ISPP researchers to come together for 1.5 hours and progress on their current writing projects, be it a book, an article, or a dissertation.

For whom? Anyone who is an ISPP member, regardless of rank or area of research interest, is encouraged to participate.

Registration Please sign up via <https://forms.gle/bZ1fLcTdKrhbogj99>

To ensure that everybody gets to participate actively, we will limit the events to 25 participants on a first-come, first-serve basis. Once your place is confirmed, you will receive an email with the Zoom access code.

The retreat will be based on the Shut Up and Write model (<https://shutupwrite.com/>): First, we will have an introduction and goal-setting of 10-15 minutes, followed by two 25-minute sessions of silent work (applying the Pomodoro method). Then, we will assess progress and obstacles related to our goals in a group check-in. Opportunities for additional discussion and networking will also be available for those who want to stay online past the writing portion of the retreat.
